

MD HOMOEOPATHY- PART I MODEL EXAMINATION

SPECIALITY - PSYCHIATRY

PSYCHIATRY - PAPER I

Time: 3Hrs

Max. Marks: 100

• Answer all questions

1. Long answer question (1x20 = 20)

Male patient with 59 years of age, accountant by profession, developed a severe back pain while trying to lift a heavy furniture. On examination and on MRI scan no significant abnormality found. After ruling out clinical conditions, he has been referred to you for a psychiatric evaluation and management.

- Give your steps for evaluating the patient focusing upon the diagnostic formulation.
- Discuss the role of homoeopathic psychiatrist in such cases.

2. Long answer question (4x10 = 40)

- a. Define personality, describe in detail psychoanalytic factors responsible for development and modification of the personality
- b. Discuss the various knowledges homoeopathic psychiatrist should have while evaluating the cases of psychiatric disorders
- c. Explain the classification of neuro-cognitive disorders as per DSM-V
- d. Discuss the roll of Hahnemann as a Psychiatrist.

3. Short answer question (8x5=40)

- a. Illustrate the representation of behavior in Materia medica
- b. Principles of management of psycho-physiological disorders.
- c. Psychosexual theory
- d. Temperaments in Homoeopathy
- e. Defense mechanisms
- f. Hahnemannian guidelines in treating doubtful cases.
- g. Limbic system
- h. List out the common scales for IQ assessment.

*****