

PART - I Paper - II (FUNDAMENTALS OF HOMOEOPATHY IN POM)

Answer all of the following questions:

Total marks: 100 Marks

Time Duration : 3 hrs

Draw diagrams/illustrations/figures wherever necessary

ESSAY QUESTION (20*1 =20 MARKS)

1. Discuss the practical application of Kent's 12 Observations in homeopathic case management. How do these observations help a Homeopath assess the action of a remedy, determine the next course of treatment.

LONG ANSWER QUESTIONS (10*4 = 40 MARKS)

2. Explain the concept of suppression in homeopathy and its impact on the disease process.
3. Discuss the importance of being an 'unprejudiced observer' in homeopathic case-taking, as emphasized by Samuel Hahnemann.
4. Explain the process of drug proving in homeopathy as outlined by Samuel Hahnemann.
5. Compare and contrast the concept of individualization in homeopathy as presented by James Tyler Kent and Baron von Boenninghausen.

Short Answer Questions (5*8=40 MARKS)

6. Define predisposition and diathesis in homeopathy.
7. What is a pseudochronic disease in homeopathy?
8. UTILITY OF Boericke's Repertory useful in the treatment of clinical conditions?
9. What are one-sided diseases in homeopathy?
10. Boger concept of pathological generals.
11. What are complementary and inimical remedies in homeopathy?
12. Write 5 Utilities of RADAR software in homeopathy.
13. Write 5 Keynote symptoms of Arsenic album